'Unacceptable' Ukraine's security services have said Russian war planes shot down a Ukrainian army helicopter en route to the crash site in Donetsk, the city which saw the recent clashes, and a pro-Russian commander had admitted responsibility for it.. Ukraine's OSCE mission said on Sunday that there had been an increased flow into eastern Ukrainian cities of arms, money and fighters after heavy fighting earlier in the year.

It added the amount of Russian military personnel in the country had increased to 2,400 troops, mostly from the Russian military.
